Harry H. Nayor enrolled at Suffolk Law School presumably in 1907 and graduated in 1910 as one of ten in the school’s second graduating class.\(^1\) By 1918, he had a law practice at 53 State Street, Room 426, Boston, Mass., where it was located until at least 1936.\(^2\) By 1924, he was also a registered Justice of the Peace and was living in Brookline, Mass.\(^3\) By 1944, he was still living in Brookline, and his address was listed in the Brookline Directory as 25 Thatcher Street.\(^4\)

Copyright Information: Copyright ©2006 by the Suffolk University Archives, Suffolk University.

---

\(^1\) Suffolk Law Alumni Directory, 30\(^{th}\) Anniversary, 1936, p. 15.

