Monday, October 29
Opening Day Welcome
Donahue and Sawyer Lobbies
11:30am–1pm and 3:45–5pm
Meet members of the Career Services and Co-op staff and get the answers to your career-related questions.

Tuesday, October 30
Junior/Senior Event—Career Realities from the Class of 2007
Donahue 403
1–2pm
Recent graduates will share insights on their work experiences and how they landed their first jobs after graduation.

Wednesday, October 31
Frosh/Soph Event—Choosing a Major
20 Ashburton Place
3–4pm
Complete the Strong Interest Explorer and see which suggested college majors might suit your talents best.

Thursday, November 1
Career Strategies for International Students
73 Tremont Street ~ Room 683
12–1:30pm
Get career advice from international alumni and learn how to market yourself.

The War for Young Talent—Why Employers Want You!
Sawyer 427
1–2:15pm
Michael Collins, vice president of corporate sales and services for Experience, Inc., will inspire you to job search with confidence.

H&M Dress for Success Workshop and Job Recruitment Session
Archer 365
1–2:30pm
Learn how to get the professional look for less—for men and women. One of the world’s leading apparel retailers, H&M will also discuss their management training opportunities, current long-term positions, and holiday-season openings.

Careers in Student Affairs
Donahue 403
4–6pm
Interested in working for a college or university? Hear from student affairs professionals about various careers in higher education.

Friday, November 2
Cape Cod Campus Event—Careers in Transition
Hyannis Golf Club, Hyannis, Massachusetts
12–1:30pm ~ Roundtable discussion on resumes and interviews
1:30pm ~ Q&A session
A representative from Suffolk’s Boston campus Office of Career Services and Cooperative Education will host a Q&A session on job hunting and this office’s many resources.

The Grad School Option—What, When, Why, and How?
Donahue 403
1–2pm
Contemplating graduate school? Hear the perspectives of a graduate admissions expert and current graduate students.

Monday, November 5
Professional Dining Etiquette
Donahue Café ~ 41 Temple Street
5:45–8pm
Enjoy a three-course meal and get advice from Winston Jenkins of the Mannersmith etiquette consulting firm on how to make a winning impression at a business meeting or luncheon. Advance sign-up required at the HUB or Career Services by Wednesday, October 24. Cosponsors: Senior Class/Student Government Organization, College and Business School Deans’ Offices

Tuesday, November 6
Career Conversations with AHANA Students
20 Ashburton Place
1–2pm
Get a realistic perspective on the working world from Suffolk’s African American, Hispanic, Asian, and Native American alumni and employers.

Unique Careers for Criminology Students
Archer 365
1–2:15pm
Employers speak about careers in criminology, including fraud investigation, victim services, and opportunities in community and residential programs.

Featured Speakers:
Elizabeth Curlin, Community Resources for Justice
John Mogerhan, Department of Revenue
Doug Robbins, Liberty Mutual
Katia Santiago-Taylor, Massachusetts Office of Victim Assistance

Graduate Student Resume Critiques
Sawyer 408
2:30–4:30pm
Get advice on how to make your resume stand out during a one-on-one session with Suffolk’s associate director of graduate student career services.

Wednesday, November 7
Women for Hire Career Fair
Boston Park Plaza Hotel ~ 64 Arlington Street
10am–2pm
Join more than 50 employers representing for-profits, nonprofits, and government agencies as they look to recruit talented, diverse women. For more information, visit www.womenforhire.com.

Thursday, November 8
Graduate Student Career Expo
Suffolk University Law School ~ 120 Tremont Street
3:30–6pm
Join fellow graduate students for networking with Boston-area employers representing the finance, biotech, health care, and high-tech industries.

Unsure you’re pursuing the academic major that’s right for you? Curious about completing a double major or a minor? Wondering what kinds of jobs you can land with your degree?

Join us after Career Week for help with these major decisions.

The Annual Majors/Minors Expo
Thursday, November 15, 2007
12–3pm
Donahue Café