“There is no such thing as half justice.
You either have justice or you don’t. There is no such thing as half a democracy. You either have a democracy in which everyone—including the powerful—is subject to the law or you don’t.”

Congressman John Joseph Moakley
University of Central America, June 1, 1991

This symposium is presented by the John Joseph Moakley Archive and Institute at Suffolk University Law School, the Sawyer School of Management at Suffolk University, and Congressman James McGovern.

This event is free and open to the public.
