Join us for breakfast and conversation with authors of books providing useful knowledge and tactics to help you continue to be successful in this economy and beyond.

Wednesday, April 29, 7:45-9:00 AM:
The New Job Security presented by Pam Lassiter
“…the tools you need to effectively manage your career, not for a single job hunt, but over your lifetime.”

Wednesday, June 3, 7:45-9:00 AM:
The Networking Survival Guide presented by Diane Darling “…humorously shares her insights and techniques that can be immediately implemented helping people succeed.”

Friday, November 6, 7:45-9:00 AM
Merrimack College, N. Andover:
How to think like a CEO and Act Like a Leader presented by Michael Andrew
“…the author introduces clues on interpersonal skills….all the while magnifying the manner and performance that distinguish successful business leaders.”

Thursday, May 14, 7:45-9:00 AM:
Make Yourself Unforgettable by Dale Carnegie presented by Clark Merrill
“There’s nothing more critical to your success than your ability to stand out as a uniquely qualified, valuable, appealing individual -- someone whom other people really want to work with, work for, know, and help.”

Wednesday, September 30, 7:45-9:00 AM:
Portfolio Life: The New Path to Work, Purpose, and Passion After 50 presented by David Corbett “…provides the reader with useful and practical advice to manage the process and come up with a strategy that can be implemented.”

Tuesday, December 8, at 7:45-9:00 AM:
Leadership Agility presented by Bill Joiner
“Great coaching on how to develop leadership agility….five levels of mastery for anticipating and initiating change.”

120 Tremont Street, Boston. Cost (includes breakfast and book): $35 each event/3 events for $90
Registration & Information: www.suffolk.edu/execevents or call Julie Schniewind at 617-305-1902